Project Area: 100,641 sqf
Project

Year: 2011
The New World Center is part of the New World Symphony America◆s Orchestral Academy. Located in the heart of Miami Beach, the music education and performance facility is the first purpose-built home for the New World Symphony founded by artistic director Michael Tilson Thomas.  In terms of design the building◆s exterior portrays a quiet, almost tamed Frank Gehry. The rectangle shaped white building expresses Gehry◆s well known bends and folds within its interior ◆ glimpses of which are visible through the main entrance east facade 80 foot high glass curtain wall.  Information is used from: www.dezeen.com
